Crazy body parts game

This is a game for at least two people, you can play with a brother or sister or a grown up. Put on some music and when the music stops, (like musical statues). Draw one of the cards. If you pulled out the knee card you would have to touch each others knees together. This contines for all body parts! If you pull out the head card you have to sing, "Heads, shoulders, knees and toes."

HEAD